We Recommend Clement For United States Senate

The voters of Tennessee will elect two U.S. Senators nominee during the Aug. 6th Primary election. One will be elected to a six-year-term. One will be elected to fill the two-year unexpired term of the late Senator Estes Kefauver.

Seeking to be elected to the two-year term in the Democratic primary are: Gov. Frank Goad Clement, Congressman Ross Bass and M. M. Bullard, Campaigning for the seat under the Republican Party's banner are: Howard Henry Baker, Jr., Dr. Charles R. Moffett and Hubert D. Patty.

Clement's record as governor of Tennessee (1955-56) was one of sound progress. Under this administration Tennessee has made great strides in the areas of education, mental health, highways, public health, youth guidance programs, parks, medical care for indigents, municipal benefits and employment security.

CLEMENT AND BASS

Furthermore, he has established new job opportunities for Negroes in State Government on all levels. He has called upon all citizens to obey and respect the recently enacted Civil Rights bill. He has acted with forthrightness in the area of social change to insure that Tennessee will move in the direction of Democracy for all citizens.

The choice narrows down to Clement and Bass.

Perhaps the most important single issue facing Negro citizens is the implementation of the Civil Rights law. But for Bass' vote on the Civil Rights bill, he would scarcely be considered on his prior record as a friend to Negroes. And his candidacy deserves scant consideration. After all, he signed the Southern Manifesto. He denounced the U.S. Supreme Court for its 1954 School Decision. He voted against the 1957 and 1960 Civil Rights bill — and in times past, he publicly proclaimed himself to be "an old fashion segregationist." He also stated that he hoped the time would never come when Negro and white children would attend school together in Tennessee.

In fact, the only positive item on Bass' record is his one vote for the 1964 Civil Rights bill.

On the other hand, Frank Clement took a stand in the interest of law and order in Clinton, Tenn. when he protected 11 Negro school children whose safety was threatened at a desegregated school. During this particular time it was most unpopular for a Southern governor to take such stand.

PAST ACTION

Our memories must not be so short — and our gratitude must not dwindle so rapidly. It was the key stand of Clement that paved the way for the rapid progress that has been made in all areas of desegregation in Knoxville, Nashville, Memphis and Chattanooga as well as other sections of the state.

We are not unmindful of the gallant action of our children, the sit-ins, the legal action won by our lawyers. Nor are we unmindful of the great resistance that was met. But we do know that Tennessee was ripe to be a bloody battle ground in the transition as were Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama and other deep Southern States.

Nor do we content ourselves with Clement's past action alone. We look at the vast changes that have been made in this term of office in placing Negroes on vital commissions such as the Pardons and Parole Board, State Board of Education, etc.

We think in terms of new jobs created on clerical levels and other white-collar employment for the average worker. We know Clement's cause to all citizens of the State of Tennessee to obey the Civil Rights law, but more important — "to respect the Civil Rights law."

BEST QUALIFIED

We view with pride his genuine and abiding social concern for the aged citizens, the student loan program, the free text-book program.

In short, what is the measure of a man? What is his heart-beat? What is his genuine concern when soliciting votes is not the immediate issue? How would he act or react under pressure?

Looking at the two records and giving due credit to Congressman Ross Bass for his one vote on the Civil Rights bill, we think that on balance Frank Goad Clement is much the better candidate to represent not only Negro citizens but all citizens of the State of Tennessee.

Bass' vote on the Civil Rights bill was made possible by Clement's action in Clinton, Tenn.

Gov. Clement has displayed dedication, vision, wisdom, integrity and a belief in justice.

Therefore, the Tri-State Defender endorses the candidacy of Frank Goad Clement for the U.S. Senate — and recommends him to voters as the best qualified candidate in this Senatorial race.

Bullet In Heart Ends Spat With Neighbor

Threatening his neighbor last Saturday morning, and then blocking his door to keep the frightened man from escaping resulted in the slaying of Normal Settles, 32, of 202 S. 4th st., Apt. 3.

Held in jail this week for the murder of Settles was Gene Ross, 35, who worked as a kitchen helper at Hotel Peabody. He lived at 202 S. Fourth st., Apt. 2.

According to police, Ross went to bed about 11:30 p.m. Wednesday, and was awakened about 12:15 a.m. Thursday when Settles began beating on his door.

LAST PUBLIC APPEARANCE

Last public appearance of Mrs. Ida May Qualls was attending the opening of the new Union Protective Life Insurance Company's home office on Mississippi Blvd. last December. She is being accompanied by her son, Sam, in whose arms she died. (Photo by Billy Duncan).

Rites Held For Mrs. Ida Qualls, Owner Of Qualls' Funeral Home

A member of one of Memphis' pioneer families, Mrs. Ida May Qualls, was buried in Mt. Carmel cemetery Tuesday afternoon following rites at Mt. Olive CME Cathedral. Officiating was the church's pastor, Rev. T. C. Lightfoot.

Mrs. Qualls, who had lived all of her life in Memphis, died Thursday morning after being hospitalized about three weeks. She had been in failing health the last seven years.

Active pallbearers were employees and former employees at the S. W. Qualls Funeral Home, which Mrs. Qualls had managed since the death of her husband, Sam Qualls, Sr., June 22, 1944. Pallbearers were: Robert Allen, Roland Mobley, John Hewlett, Charlie Jones, James Lampley and E. C. "Sugg" Jones.

Honorary pallbearers were members of: Mt. Olive Cathedral's Stewardess Board

No. 3, Senior choir, Now & Then Club, Mary Club, Four & Eight Club, Tennessee State Funeral Directors, Bluff City Funeral Directors and the National Funeral Directors.

Mrs. Qualls died 20 years, one month and one day after her late husband, who established his funeral business in Orange Mound about 50 years ago after he resigned as an employee of the T. H. Hayes & Sons funeral home.

Mrs. Qualls was the daughter of the late Mack D. and Ida May Stephenson, whose names appear on the cornerstone of Mt. Olive church which was established here early in 1800.

Mrs. Qualls attended La-Rose school before graduating from Mississippi Industrial college in Holly Springs, Miss.

Survivors include a son, Sam Qualls, Jr., 1211 Fountain Court, and two nephews, George and Bert Stewart of Chicago, Ill.

Urban League President Urges Mayors And Negro Leaders To Meet To Avert Racial Rioting

President of the National Urban League, Henry Steeger, on Wednesday urged mayors to meet with responsible Negro leaders across the nation to air grievances and avert any possible spread of the Harlem rioting.

In a statement issued to the press, Steeger said: "If mayors and responsible Negro leadership can meet now, it is possible that the ground can be cut from under any extremist or radical organizations who traffic in violence and insurrection."

"Mayors and city managers in cities throughout the country should meet now with officials of the Urban League, and other responsible officials to air grievances and weed out conditions which make fertile ground for radicals and extremist agitators."

He added, "Too many cities still suffer from blocked channels of communication between white and Negro communities. These need to be opened up."

Steeger suggested five areas in which the problem could be handled:

(1) Opening communications of itself and bringing the difficulties into the conference room is a step forward.

(2) Making certain that mayors do everything possible to implement the new civil rights bill in their communities — such as urging compliance to the public accommodations plank or pre-empting on employers to hire without prejudice.

(3) Speeding efforts for getting idle and unemployed teenagers off city streets through state or municipal camp or work programs, and working to better conditions in housing and education.

(4) Adopting a police department code of operation which calls for representation of significant numbers of Negro police in all Negro neighborhoods and equal opportunities for promotion for these men, as well as human relations understanding programs for all police.

(5) The issuing by mayors and responsible Negro leaders of joint statements condemning extremist action or violence whether in Mississippi or Harlem and repudiating the positions of both Black Nationalists and white supremacist movements.

LBJ And The Strange World Of The Negro

SAN FRANCISCO—Sunday comic fans recall the exotic experiences of "The Strange World of Mr. Mum." The Negro world is no less "strange."

While the Negro feels his world is the strangest of them all — supporting a Southern President — the country is having its own nightmare: a Western candidate for President for a "first" in American history; a conflict between Eastern and Western control within a major party in this country; facing a campaign that will exploit the emotions of ALL Americans against each other and the Government.

The country is about to experience the greatest hate campaign of them all! The Catholic dislike for the Jew and the Negro will be exploited. The Polish distrust for all ethnics — and especially the Negro whom he is just one step above — will be cultivated.

NUMEROUS FACTIONS

The Protestants have never reconciled themselves to Catholic dominance in the social and political arenas, and NOTHING in the coming campaign will help them to "love thy (non-Protestant) neighbor."

The military will always feel that "civilians are soft," and only will be tolerated in times of peace, or rather between wars. Any of the five-star generals, of which there were many at the Goldwater Convention, will concur with this.

Prior to World War II, the American businessmen, who made money supporting the Nazi cause and their methods until public opinion and European slaughter stopped them, have never found another philosophy, and so have been waiting for an American resurgence. It has come.

Civil Rights Act of 1964, signed, sealed and delivered by Lyndon B. Johnson, solved the public accommodations, still a Southern problem, but housing and "de facto" school segregation, both housing problems, are among the last frontiers.

Even the liberal and/or moderate white and other ethnic and religious types tremble to think of "living next door to one."

Into this nation-wide arena of malcontents steps Barry M. Goldwater, Republican nominee for President.

But what about Lyndon B. Johnson? Is he sincere about civil rights? Will he change if returned to the White House?

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell of Harlem, who supported LBJ for President in 1960 (to his snook and surprise of eve-

New York by way of Yale university, has been appointed Special Assistant to Mr. Johnson.

Plans are in the hopper for a Negro woman ambassador, a Negro aide to Press Secretary George Reedy, and Mrs. Johnson is about to employ a Negro on her staff. There will be more Negro male ambassadors.

FREEDOM AWARDS

Just recently the President named three Negroes for the Freedom Awards: Dr. Lena Edwards, now giving medical assistance to migrant workers in Texas; Leontyne Price and A. Phillip Randolph. Last year only Marian Anderson and Dr. Ralph Bunche were the only Negroes so honored.

Carl Rowan gives this humorous evaluation of the President: "The President will bowl any man out, regardless of race, creed or color."

Out of his many conversations with the President, he recalls one in which the President was discussing a housing problem—his own. "The President was discussing the kind of house he was looking for in Washington, and he turned to me and said, 'Carl, I want the kind of house where I can invite anyone I want to.'"

LBJ purchased the Elms, formerly owned by Perle Mesta, considered at one time Washington's top hostess. He did invite "anyone," with no regard for race, creed or color.

DOESN'T SCARE NEGRO

During the Kennedy Administration, the President's Committee on Equal Opportunity took on greater vitality with LBJ, the vice president, as the chairman. While there was little publicity, Mr. Johnson was speaking out for civil rights, and greater job opportunities for the under-employed. A look at his action during the Kennedy years will not frighten the Negro.

President Johnson has moved in a way that benefits all people, knowing that civil rights for the Negro is civil rights for Mexicans, Catholics, Jews, Protestants, Germans and Americans.

In a quiet voice, Kermit Bailer, now with the Commun-

Carloads Of Drunks Try 'Flare-Up'

Tagging a fight between two carloads of drunks last Saturday afternoon as a "racial flare-up" by some of the Memphis news media was viewed by police as an attempt to provoke a division between whites and Negroes.

"Our investigation revealed that there was nothing of a racial nature involved," Homicide Capt. E. C. Swann said. "It was just a fight between two carloads of drunks."

Capt. Swann, who took part in the investigation and attempted to locate a body which was supposed to have been tossed in Wolf river, gave this account of what happened last Saturday:

A 1957 automobile occupied by five Negroes was going north on Hollywood from Chelsea at the same time that a 1963 car with Illinois license and occupied by three men was going in the same direction.

FOUGHT ON BRIDGE

It was known that the occupants of the local car had been drinking, and it is believed that the ones in the Illinois car had also been drinking. There was an exchange of profanity between the two vehicles because the occupants of one thought the other was driving in a reckless manner.

When the two cars got to the bridge on Hollywood crossing the Wolf river, both cars stopped and the occupants of each came out with fire tools and began battling. One of the occupants in the local car, however, ran to a nearby house and called the police.

After a brief battle, all got back into their cars—except the man who ran to call police—and the local car went south on Hollywood and the Illinois car sped northward.

RIVER DRAGGED

Witnesses gave officers a description of both vehicles, and the one with the Negroes in it was located at a service station and the occupants arrested. Lawrence Thomas, 22, of 3480 Cypress, was discovered to be suffering from a laceration over his right eye, while Robert S. Taylor, of 3357 Chapel rd., was found to have sustained lacerations of the right wrist and other bruises. One of the occupants of the out-of-state car was said to have suffered a cut on the head.

Captain Swann said the occupants of the local car were docketed on the disorderly conduct charges and held because someone reported having seen the arm and shoulder of one of the whites in the water under the bridge.

Police dragged the water in the area, but could not locate a body. Efforts were made to locate the out-of-state car at nearby military installations, but it could not be found, Capt. Swann said.

"If we find them," Capt. Swann said, "they will also be charged."

He said that the man from the local car who ran away and called police, later came to police headquarters and gave information about the incident and then went home.

Since the racial disturbances occurred in New York City and vicinity, Capt. Swann said, efforts have been made by some of the news media in Memphis to magnify or distort any incident between whites and Negroes as a repercussion of what is happening elsewhere.

Sharp Knife Used To Rescue His Brother; Two Slashed, Two Run

Two 19-year-old boys who attacked the owners of the Handy Pantry store in Holiday Heights at 1570 Alcy rd., were cut and two of their companions ran away after knocking one of the store owners unconscious in the presence of his brother.

Using the knife on the teenagers was Frank Davis. He had seen his brother, Robert Davis, kicked and beaten into a state of unconsciousness by four young men last Friday night.

Police said that James C. Franklin, 19, of 1629 Kansas, and Tommy Lee Morgan, also 19, of 1571 Carlton, along with two others were standing in front of the store using profane language.

In an attempt to get the boys to either stop cursing or move on, Robert Davis came out of the store and threatened to call police.

While he was talking to three of the men, another youth came out of the telephone booth and slugged him. He went down under a rain of blows, and while others began stomping him, one of the boys got a board and began beating him. Robert Davis was knocked unconscious.

GOT KNIFE

After an unsuccessful attempt to make the boys stop the attack on his brother, Frank Davis ran back into the store and got a knife.

Franklin was cut on the leg and Morgan was slashed in the stomach before the other two ran away.

Morgan and Franklin were on the scene when police arrived, and Morgan remained in the hospital early this week, although his condition was listed as "good."

Franklin appeared in City Court on Monday morning and was fined $50 on a charge of disorderly conduct and held to the action of the Shelby County Grand Jury.

A similar charge awaits Morgan when he is released

We Recommend These Candidates For Election In The Primary

On Aug. 6 voters will go to the polls to elect candidates in 77 positions. The first qualification we seek in these candidates is good citizenship, moral turpitude and a belief in democratic ideology. Secondly, we expect candidates to manifest accomplishments in some area, demonstrate administrative responsibility, leadership potential, vision and a capability of meeting the demands of social changes in our democracy.

We believe that the following incumbents in the race for the State House of Representatives, whom the Tri State Defender endorsed and recommended to its readers two years ago, are worthy of being reelected because of their sincerity and work in the interest of all of the citizen of Shelby County.

Therefore, we endorse the candidacy of: Mrs. Joan F. Strong, Position 4; Marvin J. Brode, Position 6 (unopposed); Marvin L. Spruill, Position 7; Robert M. Fargason, Position 9, (unopposed); Hugh Stanton, Jr., Position 10; Jack McNeill, Position 11; John B. Maxwell, Jr., Position 12 (unopposed); Edgar H. Gillock, Position 13.

We also endorse the candidacy of the following for the State House of Representatives: A. W. Willis, Position 1; Henry Klien, Position 2; James E. Williams, Position 3; F. T. Thayer III, Position 5; O. J. Smith, Position 8.

For State Senate, we endorse:

Russell B. Sugarmon, Jr., District 29; Joe Pikin, District 30; Robert W. Andrews, District 31; Lewis Taliaferro, District 32; James B. Mitchell, District 33.

In the Constable race, we endorse:

M. A. Hinds, District 1; Charles E. Ware, District 2.

For Circuit Court Judges:

The incumbent Judges Howard J. Vorder Bruegge, Division 7; and Judge William B. Leffler of Division 3, are unopposed. We endorse Robert M. McRae, Jr. for Division 8.

Tax Assessor: There are two fine gentlemen seeking to be elected County Tax Assessor. One is the incumbent George C. LaManna and the other is Bob Hawks, who has worked hard in a number of other political campaigns for other candidates. However, we feel that LaManna is better qualified to carry on the work of the office. Therefore, we endorse the candidacy of George C. LaManna.

Incumbent Judge James W. Parrot of the Court of Appeals of the Eastern Grand Division; and Judge Andrew O. Holmes of the Supreme Court of the Western Grand Division are unopposed. We endorse them.

Delegates to the Tennessee Limited Constitutional Convention: We endorse and recommend: John D. O'Neil, Position 1; Wyeth Chandler, Position 2; Mrs. Anne W. Shafer, Position 4; Charles E. Pool, Position 5; E. Gary Maples, Position 6; Oscar H. Edmonds, Jr.; Position 7; and Rev. J. A. McDaniel, Position 8.

Democratic Executive Committee:

Hunter Lane, Jr., Position 1; Jack W. Ramsay, Position 2; Clifford Tuck, Position 3; Robert V. Bickers, Position 4; Bruce Jordan, Position 5; Mrs. Leo R. Burson, Position 6; Mrs. Lawrence Coe, Position 8; Henry V. Sutton, Position 9; Hal Gerber, Position 12; G. B. "Pat" Joyner, Position 13; Russell B. Sugarmon, Jr. Position 14; and William W. Farris, Position 15.

The overcrowded Sheriff race made it difficult to really discuss at length all of the view of the 15 candidates who qualified for the race. We were favorably impressed by young William N. "Bill" Morris as well as Raymond K. Land and Billy R. Schilling. However, we feel that Clayton Elam's overall qualifications give him an edge over the others. Therefore, we endorse and recommend the candidacy of Clayton Elam for County Sheriff.

For Public Service Commission (Western Division): We endorse the incumbent Cayce L. Pentecost.

For Clerk of General Sessions Court: We endorse Curry B. Roach.

Dixie To Be 'Damned' In Dems' Rights Row

WASHINGTON — (UPI) Democratic platform-builders will disregard Southern sensitivities next month and pledge the party to vigorous "enforcement" of the civil rights law.

The GOP skirted that term in the platform adopted at its San Francisco convention and used bureaucratic language to promise "full implementation and faithful execution" of the law.

The differences may be merely in language, but the civil rights issue is in the 1964 campaign to stay even if some Republicans in Congress once said that it would not be once the law was enacted.

Few politicians in either party expect Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the Republican presidential nominee, to get much of the Negro vote, which has been mostly Democratic anyway for the past 30 years. But the Democrats will write a more liberal civil rights plank in an effort to nail down this Negro vote not only for their Presidential candidates but for Congressional candidates too.

Working against the Democrats is the so-called white backlash from white voters annoyed by Negro demonstrations or concerned about Negro neighbors or job competition.

Goldwater, who voted against the civil rights bill, is the presumed beneficiary of this backlash, an issue of unknown significance until the votes are counted in November.

Some Republicans privately welcome it, some deplore it, but all realistic Republicans recognize it as an issue likely to help their underdog candidate for the White House.

While the dust was still settling at San Francisco, Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, a member of the GOP's liberal wing, explained his reasons for withholding support from Goldwater.

"Perhaps the greatest issue here is whether the Republicans will use the white backlash as a campaign weapon and take advantage of it to win the election," Case said. "It must not be tolerated."

Politicians in both parties were speculating about the white backlash months before Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama demonstrated its power in Presidential primaries. He threw a scare into stand-in candidates for President Johnson in Wisconsin, Indiana and Maryland.

Wallace ran ahead of his opponents in some areas which are expected to stick with Johnson in the voting Nov. 3. But the loss of a few percentage points in the Democratic share of the vote in heavily Democratic territory could jeopardize the party's chances of carrying pivotal states.

Democratic leaders are now telling themselves that Wallace's support came from party voters who were just blowing off steam and knew they were throwing their votes away. They also hope that any Democratic losses caused by a white backlash in big cities will be offset by Democratic gains among suburban Republicans and Independents who find Goldwater unacceptable.

NIA Elects New Orleans Lawyer As President

PHILADELPHIA — Benjamin J. Johnson, a New Orleans lawyer, and secretary of Peoples Life Insurance Company, was elected president of the National Insurance Association and installed here.

Johnson, who was elevated from the traditional heir apparent post of first vice president, will serve until July 22, 1965.

The new president of the 47 member Negro-owned life insurance company trade group is 45 years old, and the father of nine children. There are also three grandchildren.

Johnson has been employed by Peoples Life since his high school days. He sidetracked a career as a teacher, for which he prepared at Xavier University in New Orleans, to remain with Peoples.

He combined his law career with his insurance work after earning his law degree at Loyola University in 1953. A veteran of committee assignments in NIA, and several offices in the New Orleans Council of Insurance Executives, Johnson helped design a course in life insurance now being offered at Southern University's New Orleans branch.

He is active in several lay Catholic societies, the Frontiers of America, and major law groups including the American Bar Association.

Replacing Johnson as first vice president, and directly in line to succeed him is H. A. Gilliam vice president of Universal Life Insurance Company, Memphis.

There is no safety in assumptions that Goldwater cannot win the election," he said. "He can win it and he can be helped to win it if enough wrong moves are made."

Dominican Republic To Haiti: 'Let's Be Friends, Again'

SANTO DOMINGO — (UPI) — The Dominican regime announced that it would like to resume diplomatic relations with Haiti to solve "a series of problems shared by the two countries."

Donald Reid Cabral, president of the governing triumvirate, said the Dominican Republic has been willing to resume relations since last October "with a nation which shares the same island and which necessarily has to solve a series of problems common to the two countries."

The Dominican Republic severed relations with the Haitian regime of Francois (Papa Doc) Duvalier on April 28, 1963, charging that Haiti had planned to assassinate then-President Juan Bosch before his inauguration.

The two countries, which share the Caribbean Island of Hispaniola, became involved in border clashes and mobilized for conflict, but withdrew after intervention by the Organization of American States.

Cabral did not specify what the areas of cooperation between Haiti and the Dominican Republic might be.

Dear Editor: "Writing letters to editors is not a weakness of mine. But after reading your editorial in the July 18th issue under the heading "Notwithstanding," I believe I would be remiss in my appreciation of sound writing if I failed to commend you.

Gilliam Promoted And Honored At NIA Meet

H. A. Gilliam, Sr., vice president and agency director of Universal Life Insurance company, was elevated to first vice president of the National Insurance Association during the organization's 44th annual convention in Philadelphia last week.

He succeeds Benjamin J. Johnson, a New Orleans Lawyer and secretary of the Peoples Life Insurance company, who was elected president of the NIA.

Gilliam was one of three Universal Life Insurance company executive officers present for the meeting in the Sheraton hotel. Others were A. Maceo Walker, president and chairman of the board, and G. T. Howell, associate agency director.

Delegates examined "Problems and Responsibilities in a Changing Economic and Social Order."

PANEL SPEAKER

Participating in the home office section's panel, "Sources of Increased Income by Member Companies, Walker discussed "Plugging Loopholes in Industrial Debits."

Howell talked on "Securing a Satisfactory Volume of Quality Business at a Reasonable Cost."

The "Award for Outstanding Achievement in 1963" was presented to Gilliam.

The convention, attended by some 400 delegates from NIA member companies, was presided over by W. A. Clement, a vice president of North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance company of Durham, N.C.

The familiar voice of Nat D. Williams who use to be heard on Radio Station WDIA daily from 6 to 8 every morning and again from 4:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon, will not be heard as frequent from now on. His schedule has been change and his work has been greatly reduced.

Williams, a multi-talent man, had been a disc jockey with the station for the last 16 years. He started with WDIA 1948 when it was experiencing lean years, and a flopping program. He was the first Negro dj in the South.

Nat D As he is widely known, remained a dj more than three-times the usual five-year-life of top-ranking djs. For 16 years he had "prime-time" spots.

The constant search for new voices, new program and new formats had its impact on changing Nat D's schedule.

Now, he is assigned to special events, special reports and personal interviews. He's still moderator of the Sunday afternoon forum "Brown America Speaks" and the new program "Speak-Up" which is called-in-comments on "Brown America Speaks." It is heard from 5 to 6 p.m. He is also in

Funeral services for a nine-year-old boy who was hung while playing with a rope hanging in a tree of his backyard were held on last Friday night at Bethel AME church.

Larry West, son of Mrs. Ruby West of 639 Stephens pl., was found hung on Tuesday of last week by Lloyd Lot, 15 of 633 Stephens pl. He told officers that he looked out the window of his home and saw the boy's head inside of the loop of the rope.

The 15-year-old boy ran to the site and placed the boy on the ground before notifying the victim's mother of the accident.

Mrs. West said that the yard was generally filled with neighborhood youngsters using the swing, but at the time of the accident, all of them had gone home. The children used a large lard can to climb into the swing. The rope had been placed in the tree three days before the fatal accident.

WAS CUB SCOUT

Officiating at the funeral at New Bethel AME church was Rev. James Gleese, the pastor. Larry was a member of Cub Scout Troop No. 144, and his fellow scouts were honorary pallbearers. He would have been a fifth grade student at Walker Avenue Elementary school this fall.

Aside from his mother, the

Rockefeller Sees Riot Area; Curfew Extended

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — (UPI) — National Guard troops with rifles and bayonets ringed Negro sections of the city, prepared to move into action if needed to help quell new outbreaks of racial violence blamed for four deaths during the riotous weekend.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who sent the troops here, flew into the city unannounced to inspect the riot damage and consult with police and National Guard leaders on the tense situation.

City Manager Porter Homer renewed a citywide curfew but set its hours from 8:30 p.m. to 6 a.m. The weekend curfew had extended from 8 p.m. to 7 a.m. The new curfew will remain in effect indefinitely.

A ban on sale of liquor, effective throughout Monroe County, was continued through 5 p.m. Tuesday. The request was made by city officials and by the State Liquor Authority (SLA). Three courtrooms were required to handle the arraignments of some of the estimated 755 persons arrested during 3 days and nights of rioting which brought 1,200 state and local police into Rochester.

The 3 battalions of guardsmen, which Rockefeller ordered here Sunday night, equal the combined strength of law enforcement officials previously on duty here.

An elderly white civil defense worker was killed during pillaging Saturday night after being struck on the head with a pipe by a rioter.

He stumbled into a street and was struck by a hit-and-run driver.

A civil defense helicopter hovering over trouble spots in a Negro district Sunday, apparently flew too low and struck a rooming house. Three persons died in the crash and nine others were injured.

The guardsmen, all from the Rochester area and commanded by Col. William Sheehan of Auburn, N.Y., assistant commander of the parent 27th armored division, were billeted in four areas on the outskirts of Negro sections here. They are equipped with M-1 rifles, bayonets, machine guns and tear gas grenades.

In a statement, Homer said the curfew hours were reduced to "lessen the disruption of the residents, industries and businesses" in Rochester.

In an emergency session, the city council passed a resolution directing that the city manager, Homer, "at the earliest practical time" begin an inquiry into the rioting and report back to the council "with such recommendations as he may deem advisable for action that may be taken so that there may be no recurrence of this disorder."

Negroes Sunday night again defied the curfew and tossed fire bombs, rocks, bottles and other objects in hit-and-run tactics. The guardsmen were trucked to their bivouac areas through Negro areas in a show of force, but this did not prevent the new incidents.

The rioting broke out late Friday night, apparently touched off when a Negro boy was arrested during a scuffle at a street dance. It continued almost unabated through the weekend.

A Negro man was shot but not seriously wounded Sunday night when he tried to avoid arrest for violating the curfew. Earlier, a barrage of Molotov cocktails was tossed from a public housing unit, and one of them narrowly missed a fire engine. A volley of police gunfire sent the bomb-thrower into retreat.

"I am disgusted with this whole thing," said a Negro cook who has lived here for 18 years. "I've got a good job and people are wonderful to me."

He expressed the opinion that "this whole thing was caused by just a bunch of those people who are unworked and hungry and nothing otherwise."

Betty Christense, a white employee of a radio station and a resident of Rochester for seven years, said, "I have some colored friends who said they didn't recognize any of those taking part in the troubles. There was a very well organized group behind it, but I don't know who."

"I don't know if it was the Communists, the Black Muslims or what have you," said a variety store owner. "But I know it was some group."

Flora Nunez, 25, a Negro factory worker, said she thought "some group was behind it but added, "It was the people who live here."

Baptists To Send 50 On Missionary Tasks

The Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board expects to have 50 single college graduates in strategic missionary tasks overseas by September 1, 1965, according to Rev. Louis R. Cobbs, director of its new short-term program.

Named the Missionary Journeyman Program, the project is part of the Board's plan for expansion calling for 5,000 missionaries. It is designed for college graduates who do not feel called to a missionary career but who have dedicated talents and vocations to Christ and are willing to serve overseas for two years.

Rev. Cobbs, an associate secretary in the personnel department of the Foreign Mission Board, says: "These trained young people will work in many of the 56 countries where Southern Baptist missionaries are now serving. There, under the direction and supervision of career missionaries, they will share their Christian faith and perform tasks to meet critical needs."

UNDER AGE 27
Single college graduates under age 27 who are active workers in Southern Baptist churches are eligible for consideration as missionary journeymen. Those selected will serve a two-year, non-repeatable term after 10 weeks of intensive training. They will receive travel expenses, housing and meals, and small salary.

They will be sent to do specific jobs as requested by the Missions (organizations of missionaries). Early requests are for youth workers, a laboratory technician, an office secretary, a draftsman, a college teacher, a youth and music worker, and a librarian.

Place Negro Sergeants In Brooklyn Riot Area

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Police Commissioner Michael J. Murphy took advantage of a four-day lull in racial violence to replace five white sergeants in Harlem with Negroes.

The move to increase the number of Negro officers and patrolmen in Harlem was in line with the recommendations of Negro spokesmen for easing tensions in the nation's largest Negro neighborhood.

Teamsters Union Local 8186 ordered its drivers to refuse to bring whisky into Harlem and the Bedford-Stuyvesant section of Brooklyn where widespread looting and battles with police took place last week.

Lester Connell, secretary-treasurer of the local, said the embargo would remain in effect until the union "can feel certain that their members can go in and out of Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant without any fear of being injured."

The lull in the city's racial troubles was shattered briefly when three Molotov cocktails were exploded in Bedford-Stuyvesant. A white man, James Collins, 39, a patron in the Dol Ray bar, sustained burns of the neck and arm in one of the attacks.

The homemade bombs went off near the front windows of the bar and two other business places. All three establishments owned by white persons in the predominantly Negro section.

Police patrols in both Harlem and Bedford-Stuyvesant, whose combined Negro populations total almost 800,000 were cut sharply during the weekend. A police department spokesman said riot-trained officers were ready to resume emergency working hours if violence should erupt again.

No arrests were made in the bombings and there were no reports of looting. No crowd were reported in the neighborhood after the attacks but police said "a group of young Negroes" was sought in the bombings.

Know Your Negro History

Negroes were blamed as the cause of the Civil War in the bloody draft riots in New York City in July, 1863.

Dr. King Urges End To N.Y. Demonstrations

ATLANTA — (UPI) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. appealed to New York City Negroes to stop their riotous demonstration and announced he would fly to New York to confer with Mayor Robert Wagner about the city's racial crisis.

King said Wagner's office contacted him last week while he was in Mississippi and asked him to meet with the mayor about the racial violence that has plagued Harlem and other areas of New York.

King said he is prepared to also visit Rochester, N. Y., where racial rioting broke out Friday night. He does not have a formal official invitation from Rochester but said he has been invited to Rochester many times in the past.

King told a news conference he plans to make some specific recommendations to Wagner and that he probably will tour riot areas of the city appealing personally to Negro leaders to call off the violence. King had these recommendations ready to present to Wagner:

—That a police lieutenant who fatally shot a 15-year-old Negro boy be suspended immediately pending a final determination of the blame.

—That Wagner institute a civilian review board to hear racial complaints.

—That a "vigorous program," including the cooperative services of federal, state and city governments be started at once to eliminate ghetto conditions in Harlem, to increase school desegregation and to provide greater employment for thousands out of work in the Negro sections.

"Most of these people see life as a long and desolate corridor with no exits signs," King said. "They need to see a way out."

Republicans And Democratic Coalition Will Attempt To Defeat James Backers

Attempts are being made by some Republicans and Democrats here to defeat Bob James in his attempt to win the Republican nomination for the Ninth Congressional seat by asking Negroes to vote in the Republican primary in the Aug. 3 election and then voting for President Lyndon B. Johnson in the November general election to defeat Barry Goldwater.

George W. Lee, head of the Old Guard Republicans here, said:

"We see Bob James the backer of Barry Goldwater, of the John Birch philosophy is fighting the Civil War and trying to nullify the 20th Century. He is fighting also to make the Republican party a lily white affair."

"It is our honest belief that the Negro's best interest in this coming Aug. 6 election is to come over into the Republican primary and vote to defeat Bob James and his Goldwater crowd."

"In November go over to the Democrats in the general election and vote for Johnson."

"A Bob James nomination in August and a Goldwater election in November would be the worst thing that could happen to the Republican party, the Democratic party and the country as well. It would exert pressure on the Democrats to become more conservative. The national Democratic party needs a little pulling toward more liberalism, not a more conservative position."

In the August primary the voters are not called upon to abandon the Democratic party if you are a Democrat, not run away from the Republican party if you are a Republican, but you are called upon to fight against extremist groups who are trying to kidnap the Republican party and use it as a vehicle for the extreme bigotry and racism at a time in our history when confidence in our institutions was never more necessary to the challenge of the Communists."

"If we let these Right Wing extremists take over the Republican or Democratic party the minority groups of this white, the other party might country might find themselves in the same position that the Jews were when Hitler and his Nazis took over Germany when temples of justice were transformed into concentration camps."

"Mr. Bob James has demonstrated, if not with his membership, his sympathy in the John Birch Society by signing a telegram dated Jan. 14, 1964 appealing for funds to defeat the civil rights bill. This telegram was fathered by the John Birch Society. And sent out to hundreds of business leaders in the community and nation."

"Through mistake one of these telegrams was sent to Taylor C. D. Hayes, a Negro undertaker."

"The John Birch Society and similar hate groups are reminders to us once again that the principles of a free society can be destroyed by extremists. Such movements feed on our nation and cause frustrations and undermine our national purpose of Freedom. You say it can't happen here in free America. The Jews said that before Hitler came, that it could not happen there."

"It might happen here if we don't demonstrate at the ballot box by voting to the fullest extent of our numbers, just as was demonstrated in the 'March on Washington' and 'March on other American cities.'"

The call is from the street to the ballot box. The clear call to the Negro voters in Memphis and Shelby County is to the aid of Lt. George Lee who fought with such unusual courage in San Francisco and who now has brought his fight back to Shelby to fight for the same principles he tried to uphold in the Goldwater rigged Republican Convention."

"In our considered judgment the dynamics of race feelings are such that if one party should become exclusively forced to the same status of competitive politics."

"For either party or both parties to become exclusively white would strike at the roots of our whole system of Democracy and equality as set out in the Constitution and Declaration of Independence. "The Negro must fight to keep the Republican party from turning its back on its historic principles and adopt a policy resulting on the exclusion of the Negro."

"Negroes of Memphis must not permit Bob James and his crowd to take control and lock the door and thus drag the Republican Party into a position of radical conservatism, just embrace the prospects of clasping to their bosom rank segregationists on the other hand. It would be fatal for the Negro who stakes his whole future on Democratic processes to abandon the Republican party and go over totally to the Democrats."

"He would lose his bargaining power, he would lose his fight for a kindly but vigorous Democracy in which all problems might be neutralized in the bright sunshine of America's tomorrow."

"We have a clear picture of what could happen in the political careers of President Johnson and Senator Goldwater. When Mr. Johnson was in the U.S. Senate, his record on civil rights was slightly worse than Senator Goldwater on civil rights. What made Mr. Goldwater ultra conservative? He once championed the cause of integration and contributed to the NAACP Defense fund. But when 80 per cent of the Negroes voted for Kennedy in the last election, his liberalism went out of the window."

"And he preached that Negro vote was lost and could not be brought back, but the right wing radicals, such as the John Birchers, the White Citizens Councils caught onto the bane of race hating."

Sheriff Race Takes On Home Stretch Heat

Bill Morris, candidate for Sheriff, this week questioned the ability of Raymond Land, (now Chief Deputy and endorsed by the present Sheriff, Melvin Hinds), to bring about the vitally needed changes in the Sheriff's Department.

"If he is a progressive administrator, why has he not been imaginative enough to formulate programs for the up-grading of deputies, expansion of services and effect saving in the budget. If he has formulated these programs, he has not been forceful enough or comprehensive enough to persuade the present Sheriff to put them into effect," Morris said.

Rather than being an administrator, I think that Land is, and has been, a puppet of Melvin Hinds. Surely he has known that the County Court Committee had requested a look at his records, yet he did not once speak out publicly for the right of this requisition. Certainly he knew of preferential treatment being afforded privileged prisoners in the jail, yet not once have we heard him condemn those responsible for the "county club" atmosphere enjoyed by friends of the Sheriff and Chief Jailor. While I'm on the chief Jailor, can Raymond claim ignorance of the fact that vending machines in the jail were the private concession of and a supplemental income for the Chief Jailor. If Raymond Land has not been aware of Deputies receiving pay-offs in various forms then he alone has his head in the sand. An able and politically moral administrator should have been aware of these breaches of conduct and brought them to the attention of the Sheriff, then if justice was not served, the public should have been told of these sorry circumstances through the news media.

In effect, I am saying that if Raymond Land has not been an active participant in all these wrongdoings, then he has been turning his head. If this is the case, then he has proven himself to be a very ineffectual administrator and lacking in courage by not correcting the situation.

VOTE FOR CLAYTON Elam for Sheriff

FROM THE PEOPLE—FOR THE PEOPLE

ELECTION AUG. 6, 1964

BELOW WILL BE FOUND A PORTION OF MY PLATFORM WITH OTHERS TO BE INTRODUCED TO THE VOTERS AS THE CAMPAIGN PROGRESSES.

I PROPOSE:

- CHANGES: No change in employees in the Sheriff's office provided they will be dedicated employees, employees that will work for the Sheriff's Office for the betterment of the County as a whole and not for political favors and job security.
- POLITICAL ACTIVITY: No type of political work whatsoever for Sheriff's employees. If they are pressured to do political work or solicit campaign funds and if they will report the matter to me, I will protect my source of information and will expose the fact that they have been pressured.
- CIVIL SERVICE: To do all in my power to see the Sheriff's employees get same type of Civil Service security. I don't believe an employee should have to depend on political alliance to protect his job.
- LITTLE HATCH ACT: To work for the enactment of a "Little Hatch Act," to make it illegal for County Government workers to engage in politics. I will query the prospective candidates to the Tennessee General Assembly before I vote for them, to see if they would support such an act.
- CRIME & ACCIDENT PREVENTION: To institute a Crime and Accident Prevention Program throughout the entire County. I do not believe good Law Enforcement can be measured alone by the number of arrests and the amount of fines collected. I think a special Juvenile Squad is long past due.
- TRAINING PROGRAM: To institute a Training Program for both new and old employees of the Sheriff's Office, rather than throw a new employee with an older one and say, "Show him the ropes." The days of muscle policing are over, people will respect the badge, and not muscle and brawn.
- POLITICAL MACHINE: To do all in my power to break up the old political machine that has long dominated Memphis and Shelby County. I intend to put the power to place a person in office back into the hands of the people and make the Sheriff's office above reproach.
- ECONOMY: To use my business experience to practice economy in the Sheriff's Office. I believe the people of Shelby County are tired of unnecessary large budgets to run the Sheriff's Office. I propose to make full use of the budget available so that any further tax increase against property would be unnecessary.

Also, it is my plan and promise upon taking office to begin a detailed study, with assistance from the Business Community Law Enforcement Officials and others, to determine the feasibility from an economy standpoint of contracting with the City of Memphis Police Dept. to police the entire county, except, of course, in those municipalities in the county where police facilities are now available, for the purpose of eliminating duplication of facilities. This could possible bring about the greatest saving in tax dollars and at the same time result in obvious improvement in policing efficiency.

I will favor and prepare a Central County Comptroller to handle all receipts and disbursements for the Sheriff's Office.

9. INSPECTION OF RECORDS & FACILITIES: To keep the Sheriff's Office open at all times for inspection by the proper authorities.

I will never act officiously or permit personal feelings, prejudices, animosities or friendships to influence my decisions. As a Law Enforcement Officer my fundamental duty will be to serve mankind; To safeguard lives and property; to protect the innocent against deception, the weak against oppression or intimidation, and the rights of all persons. I will enforce the law courteously and appropriately.

EDUCATIONAL QUALIFICATIONS: High School Graduate — University of Tenn., E.D. Majoring in Criminology, Psychology, Sociology and Business Law, Graduate of RCA Radio School, FCC Amateur Radio License (K4FZJ/ W4Y2Q) 6W2139.

BUSINESS EXPERIENCE: Present owner and operator of an Advertising Agency and Insurance Adjusting Firm—Claims Investigator for a National Insurance Organization—previously (12 years) Secretary and Treasurer for a large Mid-South Financial Organization.

SPECIAL TRAINING: Former C.I.D. Agent (Criminal Investigation Division, U.S. Army) 12 years. Veteran of World War II and Korea, holding 14 medals and badges. Mrs. Willie Woods of 1405 Florida St., is the house guest of her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie W. Turner, of Sacramento, Cal., who are former Memphians.

A sister of Mrs. Woods of Los Angeles, Mrs. Johnnie Mae Ford, was among the many friends to visit Mrs. Woods. Others included Mr. and Mrs. Laev Knox, Mr. and Mrs. V. Harris and Dempsey Randolph.

Mrs. Woods is being entertained at parties and other social affairs.

Ushers' Day Held At Lane Ave. Baptist

Usher's Day was observed last Sunday at the Lane Avenue Baptist church, and a special feature of the program at 3:30 p.m. was the processional of all of the ushers.

Rev. J. W. Williams is pastor of the church, and Mrs. Eddie Lou Blanton reporter.

Red, white, & blue retirement plan

Sure, you'll have social security. Maybe an insurance plan, company pension and money in the bank to boot.

But buying U.S. Savings Bonds is also an excellent way to prepare for that day when you start taking it easy full time.

If you buy one a month at $87.50 for 7½ years before you retire, you'll have $50.00 a month coming in for 7½ years after. (That's just an example. You can adjust the dollars and the years to suit yourself.)

Something else to think about: Bonds can help make sure you'll have a future to retire to in the first place. The money does a lot to strengthen Uncle Sam's hand in the free world.

Why not make it a habit to buy Bonds regularly where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work? See if you don't feel pretty good about it—now and later.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity (7½ years)
- You pay no state or local tax and can defer the federal tax until the Bonds are cashed
- Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- You can get your money when you need it

SERVING 1,000,000 NEGROES IN THE TRI-STATE AREA

Profile Of Congressional Candidates In This Race

An examination of candidates for Congress in the Ninth Congressional District reveal some startling inconsistencies.

First let us take a look at the George Grider profile, whom some Negro leaders are beating drums about, while at the same time leading the fight on the Civil Rights front. They have confused us completely, about why they are holding up the Grider banner and telling Negro voters that he is the man of the hour.

A look at Mr. Grider's record shows that he did take a positive stand against Civil Rights when he staged in a newspaper — not long ago, that demonstrations were unconstitutional. In other words, we are lead to believe, according to Mr. Grider's statement, that the Civil Rights bill recently passed is unconstitutional.

Mr. Grider knows that there would not have been a Civil Rights bill if Negroes in this country had not resolved to move forward with a social revolution of non-violence. He knows that America could not have been aroused had not the sit-ins, the freedom riders, demonstrators shown a determination to bring direct, powerful pressure to bear upon American communities and Congress to off-set and counter the pressure of reaction.

Mr. Grider knows that these demonstrators along with many white people, who believe in Constitutional rights have created the astomosphere for change.

There is still other reasons that give us more anxious moments of disbelief about the sincerity of purpose of those Grider drum-beaters.

A few months ago Mr. Grider fathered an investigation in which the Negro newspapers and some Negro leaders were held up to ridicule and shame — and condemned for accepting advertisement of election notices in an honest way. The amount of money received for advertisement space in the Negro newspapers were pointed out as a thing of evil while on the other hand, Mr. Grider remained strangely silent about the money received by the white daily newspaper for the same kind of political advertisement. He made every effort, knowingly or unknowingly to discredit Negro newspapers.

He struck a low blow at the integrity of Negro leadership with smear tactics.

And now he stands upon the platform with his hand extended down in quest of Negro votes.

How can Negro citizens vote for Mr. Grider?

We take another retrospective view at Bob James, affiliated with the Goldwater philosophy which is fighting the philosophy of Civil Rights as well as driving Negroes from the Republican Party. It is our honest belief that Negroes' best interest in this coming August Primary is to defeat Bob James and his Goldwater followers.

A Bob James nomination in the August primary would help elect Barry Goldwater in November, which would be the worst thing that could happen to the Republican Party at this time, as well as the Democratic Party here.

Negroes in Memphis must not stand idly by and permit Bob James and his followers to take control and lock the door to progressive government with radical conservatism.

Congressman Cliff Davis did not vote for the Civil Rights bill. Like George Grider, he did think it was constitutional.

State Senator Frank L. White has remained mute and inarticulate on the great questions that fret and trouble our domestic scene.

Therefore the Tri State Defender does not endorse any Democrat for the Congressional race.

POWER OF A SINGLE VOTE

Countries ruled by dictators are countries where free, democratic elections are not utilized. Ambitious politicians who seek to establish absolute governmental control first destroy the free election system of a country.

A dictator could never gain absolute control over citizens as long as they are privileged to express their choices at free elections and have their wishes implemented.

Many American citizens will say that a dictatorship could never be established in America—but it can. Once citizens stop participating in free elections then we will be headed for a dictatorship. That is why it is very important that you vote in every election.

Yes. Your one vote is very important.

BACKWOODS AREA

To citizens who do not consider it important to vote in every election, permit me to quote a passage from the novel "Magnificent Destiny" by Paul I. Wellman. The novel is about the "great secret adventure of Andrew Jackson and Sam Houston."

Here is the message:

"The precarious nature of the historic action by the Senate, and the small things upon which the destinies of nations sometime hang, are illustrated only by one of many episodes with it, of which neither Andrew Jackson nor any of the other major figures on the political scene ever knew. But as a brief digression it is worth recounting.

"In the extreme southeast corner of Indiana lay the backwoods area of Switzerland county. On election day that fall in 1844, old Freeman Clark, a farmer, lay seriously ill in bed. But he begged his sons to carry him over a mountain road to the county seat, so that he could vote.

"The candidate for whom the old man wished to vote was David Kelso, who once had defended him on a murder charge and obtained his acquittal. Thus, gratitude was a motive to Freeman Clark. But even more impelling was the fact that he was a long-time Jackson man, and Kelso, running for the State Senate, was a Jackson man also. FREEMAN CLARK

"His wish was obeyed. The old farmer voted, was carried

The Great Women

When I said in one of these columns that America produced no great women on the scale of a Cleopatra or Catherine the Great or Victoria, I was inundated by complaints from the ladies.

I know now the name of every woman college president, every woman writer and half of the women editors. "Think of the suffragettes!" urged many of my correspondents. So I did. What I think is that Ellen Glasgow and Charlotte and Emily Bronte accomplished more without the vote than most women accomplish with it.

Simply persuing the books that American women buy leads me to believe they are basically insecure. We have "Sex and the Single Girl," "Sex and the Career Girl," "Sex and the College Girl," I fully expect "Sex and the Upstairs Maid" next.

A culture produces great women when the women are sure they are loved. When women are unsure of male devotion and love, a culture produces a great many best-selling books on sex.

Women entertain the erroneous idea that once upon a time before the 20th century, they were all vassals and marriage and life were a momentary joy followed by a chain of sorrows.

home by his sons, and the exertions of his journey caused his death. David Kelso was elected to the Indiana state senate by a Single Vote: Freeman Clark's."

Sitting at Indianapolis, the state senate had a task of high importance — the election of a United States senator. Counting Kelso, the Democrats in the state senate had a majority of Just One. A caucus was held and it developed that majority of the party delegation favored a man who, it was known, would vote against the Texas annexation, if elected.

"But Kelso refused to vote for the party choice. A deadlock resulted between the Democratic and Whigs candidates which continued for days.

"Finally, Kelso made his move. He proposed a new candidate — Edward A. Hannigan. And in the party caucus he notified his Democratic associates that he would bolt and vote with the Whigs — thus electing a Whig to the Senate—unless they supported Hannigan.

By HARRY GOLDEN

But indeed it is the contrary which was true. Women were always deferred to. For nothing has ever prevailed against the institution of marriage, not even easy divorce laws. Women always ran the house or the castle or the hut. Life itself may have been rude but it treated women less rudely than it treated everyone else.

Cleopatra never looked through a microscope nor did Queen Victoria spend her summer vacations painting sets at the local theatre. Yet they were great women, great because not only were they loved but the mass of women in these societies were loved.

A woman's life turns on love. In Shakespeare's play, Richard III kills Edward and marries his widow Lady Anne because he convinces her he killed for her love. He bares his chest to her sword and she rewards such passion with her troth. Was ever a woman so wooed? asks Richard.

But indeed yes. Convince a woman of your love and there is no tenement in which she will not live and no crime she will not forgive. But make her doubt, and the next thing you know she will want to read books and realize herself and spend her junior year abroad, improving herself.

"The Democrats felt constrained to accept Hannigan. He was elected by a Single Vote — Kelso's."

"The first great issue before the United States Senate when Hannigan took his seat was the reconsideration of the Texas treaty for annexation, placed before it again by President Tyler. Texas sentiment had grown, but in spite of that, the treaty was ratified with the necessary two-thirds majority by Only One Vote — that of the new Indiana senator, Edward A. Hannigan.

"Can it not thus be said that the vote of a dying man in the hills of a backwoods county in Indiana made Texas a state, and Andrew Jackson's mighty plan a reality?"

Let me hasten to say — never underestimate the power and the importance of your vote.

I urge you to be sure that you vote during the August 6 Primary election.

Your vote could save the plight of our state.

Jackie Robinson Says

Are These Our Leaders?

Newspapers all over America — and I am sure — throughout the world — carried stories a couple of weeks ago, telling how two Southern Senators engaged in a wrestling match on the floor of a Senate hearing room.

One of the playful legislators — both are sixty-one years of age, old enough to know better — was that defender of the honor, Senator Thurmond was supposedly "only kidding" when he went to the mat with his longtime friend, Senator Ralph Rabb, the Texas Democrat.

We wish Senator Thurmond had been kidding immediately after the March On Washington when he broadcast some remarks to the world which, to say the least, were pretty silly.

The South Carolina Democrat let it be known that he considered the magnificent March unnecessary, embarrassing to the nation and a demonstration which would give the world the wrong picture of the status of the Negro in America.

Thurmond allowed that Negroes in America have "more refrigerators, television sets and cars" than anywhere else on the globe. What this has to do with our wanting our freedom as human beings was not made clear by this stalwart champion of white supremacy.

In troubled times like these, the spectacle of two members of the august U. S. Senate carrying on like two schoolboys does little for the image of this nation around the world. Are men like these our leaders?

Is Louis Lomax, the author, one of our leaders? While hundreds of state and federal personnel were dredging waters and beating bushes in Mississippi to try to find the remains of two white youths and a Negro, evidently murdered by segregationists, Lomax was writing articles telling the Negro people to "go slow" in the integration fight.

From Lomax' point of view, Negroes should be so grateful for the new civil rights bill that he should not crowd the Southern white man. Lomax has every right to advance his own career and to earn comfortable checks for his writing.

But I do not believe that Lomax himself really believes that the Negro should slow down in his fight for freedom simply because, one hundred years late, we have been granted — not our rights — but legal recognition of them and a green light to fight for them with the Government aiding in the fight.

Lomax echoes the same mistake which is made by many of our white friends when he assumes that the civil rights bill is a gift to the Negro. With the shape of the world today, the civil rights bill is as much a salvation to white America as it is to black America.

Is Louis Lomax one of our leaders. I hope not.

I hope not because — too often — it appears that Mr. Lomax is telling the white man what the white man wants to hear rather than what he ought to know.

That Sinister Force

As we write this, the Republican Party has served notice that it no longer desires to live.

They nominated that Apostle of the Eighteenth Century, Barry Goldwater.

The Republican convention was a nightmare. Controlled with an almost police state kind of despotism, it projected a bigoted, anti-Negro atmosphere. As Jackie Robinson has observed, even a former President, while mouthing democratic-sounding generalities, could find time to make disparaging insinuations about the Negro people.

Yet this great General who once surrendered to McCarthyism, had not one word to say about the murderers and thugs who executed three youngsters who went to Mississippi to try to help make democracy work.

I believe that Barry Goldwater is a dangerous man.

I believe he is not only dangerous insofar as 20 million Negroes are concerned.

I believe he is dangerous as a threat to the hopes and aspirations and dreams of all Americans.

If there was any breath of wholesomeness in the whole convention, it was the way Nelson Rockefeller, Hugh Scott, Ken Keating, Jack Javits and John Lindsay fought — and the eloquence of George Parker and Jackie Robinson and Massachusetts Atty. Gen. Edward W. Brooke.

Senator Clifford Case of New Jersey was also very moving.

The Republican Party has let me know that it doesn't want me — that is, that segment of right-wingers and reactionaries who have taken it over. Well, I don't want it or them.

I do not know what course others may take. Me, I am going to work like hell for LBJ, vote for him and split my ticket to uphold those in the Republican Party who have indicated clearly not only that they want my vote — but also that they want a country which moves forward rather than back to some Dark Ages of reaction and dictatorship.

I was one of those who tried to warn people that Barry Goldwater symbolized a sinister force which, if underestimated, could gain great momentum. America did underestimate that force.

There is a danger that we will make another error — in assuming that Barry Goldwater cannot beat Lyndon Johnson.

This would be a grievous mistake.

We do not know how deep are the pockets of reaction and prejudice in this country.

All of us who love this country ought to put some insurance on it by making certain that Barry Goldwater receives one of the finest trouncings in political history and that Lyndon Johnson has a landslide in fifty states of America.

Woodlawn Drop-Outs Get Awards

Three Woodlawn residents, who completed a pilot hospital training program for school drop-outs, were awarded pins and certificates by the Woodlawn Hospital administration.

The three, Mary Henrietta Apkins, 6431 S. Blackstone; Norma Hean Lawrence, 6207 S. Vernon Ave., and Walter Smith, 6007 S. Rhodes Ave., completed basic training as nurses aides and attendants.

The program began in April with two weeks of orientation at the Southside Community Committee headquarters, 6156 S. Cottage Grove ave. It included developing a attitude understanding and personality, job responsibility, employment relationships, personal appearance and good grooming.

Two sessions were geared to vocabulary and basic mathematics. The training program at Woodlawn Hospital also included practical experience as well as theory.

Small Loan Law Is Needed, Says Atty. Taliaferro

A Small Loan Law is needed, said former State Senator Lewis Taliaferro who is campaigning for re-election to the 32 District seat he held in the 1961 Legislature.

Atty. Taliaferro said: "The breezy 'come-on' and the easy pay-off angle of small loan companies have put a strangle-hold on low income workers who are forced to borrow money to meet emergencies.

"These high - rate loan sharks, in their greed, have made it impossible for many people to ever pay up completely. There have been cases reported where interest rates ran as high as 150 to 160 per cent.

"Present laws do not afford protection for the little fellow who's up against it and can't go through regular financial channels to get money with which to pay grocery bills and buy milk for his children," said Taliaferro.

He continued, "It is admitted that due to the greater risk involved, these loan companies ought to be allowed charge higher interest rates than banks and finance companies are allowed under present law.

"We ought to have a small loan law on the statute books which would permit interest rates that would be fair, both to the lender and the borrower. The little man ought to be able to secure a needed loan without having to pay an exorbitant interest rate," explained the former senator.

"The practice of 'flipping' (the pyramiding of interest and carrying charges by the repeated re-financing of loans) should be ended by suitable legislation. The matter of credit life insurance or credit accident and health insurance should be more closely regulated by appropriate legislation."

He said provisions should be made to require lenders to clearly apprise borrowers of: (1) The principal amount of the loan (2) All charges imposed (itemized and explained) (3) The total amount to be repaid (4) The schedule of payments due, with dates and amounts.

"Consideration must be given to the enactment of legislation to:

"(1) Prohibit lenders from requiring or accepting wage assignments from borrowers. (2) Prohibit lenders from enticing or permitting borrowers to become obligated on more than one loan contract at a time.

"(3) Make it a misdemeanor to contract for usury.

"(4) Make the entire loan void and uncollectible if tainted with usury, but to provide that loans made in good faith under the provisions of any Act subsequently declared unconstitutional would not be so affected."

Tot, 5, Attacked; Nab Ex-Con, 58

Chicago, Illinois

A frantic, all-night search for a five-year-old Southside girl ended Monday afternoon when police found her in a locked basement with a 58-year-old ex-convict.

The child had been sexually molested.

The suspect, Joseph H. Walker, is scheduled to appear in Felony Court this morning to answer charges of forcible rape. Police had no address for him.

Discovery of the little girl ended a search which began about 9:30 Sunday night when she apparently slipped out the back door of her home into an adjacent alley.

Her father, Emmett Blackwell, told the DEFENDER that he was taking care of the children, whose mother had just given birth to her seventh child in Lying-In Hospital.

"I had called them in and given them supper," the distraught father said. "Then it was time for them to take baths before going to bed. When I looked around, she was gone."

Blackwell scoured the neighborhood for the child, but could not find her. He got into his car and drove around. Unsuccessful in his efforts, he called police.

At the height of the search, dozens of policemen from the Englewood district were fanning through the neighborhood.

The house where the little girl was found is located at 6705 S. Sangamon. Police passed the house dozens of times during the night.

When daylight came, they decided to enter buildings in the neighborhood, especially a large apartment building in which they thought the child might have wandered.

When the searchers entered the basement where Walker and the girl were secluded, she was crying. Police took her to St. Bernard's Hospital, where it was determined that she had been sexually molested.

Later, she told her father: "I sat up all night, Daddy. I heard you calling me, but he just wouldn't let me go."

Persons in the neighborhood say they heard a child scream at about the time police theorize she was in the alley.

According to police records, Walker served 20 years on a murder conviction and 10 years for robbery. He was also once arrested on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Mrs. Elnora Willis, who lives in the house where the girl was found, told police that Walker had been doing odd jobs around the house for about a month, and that he had access to the basement.

Police were not sure how the girl got into the basement with Walker. The door leading to the backyard was padlocked from the outside.

It was theorized that entry was gained through a window which faces onto the alley. Police said the window showed signs of having been removed and replaced hastily.

Doctors at St. Bernard's said the child's body bore bruises and scratches. Her clothing was sent to police crime laboratory for analysis.

While the door-to-door search was in progress, police asked radio stations not to broadcast any report until they checked with officials at Lying-In Hospital.

"They asked the hospital to remove any radio from the mother's room to avoid causing her grief.

However, the father told the DEFENDER later that the mother had been told about the finding of the girl without details of the experience she had suffered.

According to police, the child accused Walker of "pulling me into the basement."

Speas Releases Booklet On Many Uses Of Vinegar

The Speas company, makers of vinegar since 1888, have just released a 28-page booklet on "Why Didn't Someone Tell Me About All These Uses For Vinegar?"

The booklet is filled with valuable suggestions on the uses of vinegar, from removing grease spots and odors to uses for cooking for example:

ALUMINUM UTENSILS: Minerals in food and water sometimes cause dark stains inside aluminum utensils. You can remove these stains by boiling water to which Speas Vinegar has been added.

WINDOWS: Nobody likes to wash windows, but here is an easy, fast way to handle it: Add a halfcup of ammonia and an eighth of a cup of Speas

Vinegar to one quart of warm water. This solution will make your windows gleam and won't leave the usual film or streak on the glass.

Persons who want the colorful booklet may obtain it without charge by writing to Speas Company, attention Miss Lorene Freeman, Home Economist, 2400 Nicholson Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri, 64120.

Rochester Whites Shocked By Riots Negroes Knew Were Due To Strike Buffalo

ROCHESTER, N. Y. — (UPI) — The chaos and destruction which ripped through the predominantly Negro seventh ward (has) shocked white residents who believed their city free of the racial strife plaguing the rest of the United States.

But many of the 5,000 Negroes who live in the ward claim the trouble has been irrevocably on the way for years. "They've been kept down here too long, like dogs," a Negro insurance salesman said. "They've been stuck in this low rent housing, they've been exploited by the merchants . . . it's almost a ghetto here."

Food stores in the district have been charging higher prices and permitting credit for the premium, he said. One clothing store made a practice of overcharging, extending credit, then seizing the goods after some of the payments had been made, he said.

"If they (authorities) didn't know this trouble was coming, if nobody knew, how come I haven't been able to sell any plate glass insurance around here for years. The company just wouldn't take the risk."

"No wonder they wrecked these places. They need the credit, but they know that they are being taken to the cleaners. But I don't know why they wrecked before it wouldn't have happened. George's place over there," he said, pointing to a small men's store. "He has always tried to say they need them to protect themselves from each other."

"But what happens, the old people gets taken, then their children get a little more education and they get mad. They see what's going on, and when down here. That's what we need they get a chance they do this, to happen. Maybe today or tomorrow. It had to happen."

"Maybe the answer is to leave the country. They don't have this stuff in Canada, in places like Toronto and Montreal. We here fight for our country, we're good enough for that, for the rest of the time we're animals."

Only Negro businesses were left unscathed by the rioters. The Salvation Army Family Thrift Store had only a small hole punched in a plate glass window, and nothing was stolen. A muscular young Negro said he expected "war."

"They (white residents and police) are going to get it now," he shouted, waving and spilling to rubble, blamed the riot on a can of beer. "No more crawling around here. We're getting rifles and shotguns and we're going to have a war."

The young man sat on a doorstep in the heart of the troubled area. While he talked, a fracas broke out between two Negro men. Then a woman began pummeling one of the fighters with a child's plastic baseball bat. Police did not interfere.

"There, now. See that fight? The police aren't trying to do anything about that. Know why? 'Cause we're not people as far as they're concerned."

At that point one of the scuffling Negroes pulled a knife and swung several times at the woman. She was cut on the right arm, treated on the scene and taken by ambulance to a hospital for examination.

Her attacker was clubbed and bundled into a police wagon. "There is no reason for any of that," the young man should be taken to the cleaners. But I don't know why they wrecked before it wouldn't have happened. George's place over there," he said, pointing to a small men's store. "He has always tried to say they need them to protect themselves from each other."

"They all carry knives. They need them to protect themselves from each other. They're always fighting, cutting people gets taken, then their children get a little more education and they get mad. They see what's going on, and when down here. That's what we need they get a chance they do this, to happen. Maybe today or tomorrow. It had to happen."

Negroes leaned out of second floor windows and shouted in suits at state police and sheriffs' deputies. They called the white officers finks and the Negro police Uncle Toms.

Police were stationed at all intersections and spaced along side streets in the seething 14-block by 7-block area in the center of the ward. Crews hammered plywood over store fronts along Joseph Ave. and strolling Negroes were forbidden access to the Southern immigrants. "It's those Southern people who have been coming up here lately," he said. "They come here, and live on unemployment insurance and welfare. They have about 15 kids. I know one southern family . . . they have 16 children and she's expecting again, and nobody in the family works."

"When they were breaking up my place, I came in and asked them, 'Why are you doing this?' A big Negro grabbed me and said, 'How do you feel about the Civil Rights Bill?' I told him, 'To hell with you' and I jumped through the broken window and went upstairs. They just ruined the place."

A Negro police officer said only, "I don't give a damn for all this stuff."

Arrest CORE Demonstrators

JONESBORO, La. — (UPI) — A group of pro-integration pickets was arrested in front of the public library and booked with parading without a permit.

The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) placed the number arrested at 24, but the Jackson Parish (county) sheriff's office said there were not that many. The sheriff would not say how many were taken into custody.

A sheriff's department spokesman denied published reports that dogs were used. "Anybody who says that dogs were used is a liar," he said.

The group was led by Danny Mitchell, a field orker for the CORE summer task force. Those arrested were being held on $25 bond each. CORE said they were arrested as they emerged from cars with their signs.

Jackson Parish is in North Central Louisiana. It is one of the targets of CORE's summer project in Louisiana.

Jonesboro has a population of about 4,000.

Know Your Negro History

In Brazil, one of the two national heroes dating from early colonial wars against the Dutch was a Negro, Henrique Dias.

BUFFALO, N. Y. — (UPI) — Several civil rights leaders, Negro and white, charged that Buffalo officials have failed to cope with racial injustice and warned that the "same potential" for violence that rocked Rochester exists here.

Joseph Easley, president of the Buffalo Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said Mayor Chester Kowal "should start doing his job a little faster."

Kowal said the city should "gird itself against any agitation from without."

Kowal said he received an airmail letter from Yugoslavia warning him of possible racial outbursts in the Buffalo-Lackawanna area.

The mayor, however, declined to elaborate on the letter.

Judge Upholds Alabama Integration Proposals

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — (UPI) — A federal judge overruled Negro objections to school desegregation plans in three North Alabama communities, setting final day for acceptance of the stage for classroom integration in four grades this fall.

U.S. District Judge H. H. Grooms ordered the Madison County, Huntsville and Gadsden school boards to process transfer applications by Negro students before schools open.

Under the plans filed after the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that grade-a-year integration was insufficient, each school system would desegregate grades one, 10, 11 and 12 this fall with complete desegregation by 1969.

Grooms, ruling from the bench after hearing arguments from Negroes and the school officials, rejected arguments by attorneys of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People that the plans failed to meet the appeals court's ruling. NAACP attorney Norman Amaker said no appeal was planned immediately.

Grooms required the school boards to give public notice of the desegregation plans. He

Watchable Gal

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — (UPI) — City Councilwoman Helen Cobb was named "watchable of the month" by the local chapter of the International Society of Girl watchers.

The Society presented Mrs. Cobb with a plaque for "being the subject of many hours of pleasant girl watching."

Easley spoke at a meeting of Negro and white civil rights leaders called by Kowal to discuss ways to avert racial violence in the state's second largest city.

Kowal said he learned that some racial agitators had come to Buffalo, but he declined to identify his source.

Easley, who viewed the riot-torn sections of Rochester Saturday night, said Negroes in Buffalo have resentment similar to those in Rochester against "padded grocery bills and police brutality."

Easley said "there are the same existing elements of bad housing, unemployment, and education in Buffalo," as in Rochester. He said the Buffalo city government had not done enough to correct social problems.

One hundred and fifty persons met four hours in the emergency session with Kowal to prevent violence in the tense Negro section of the city's east side.

The greatest stir at the meeting was caused by Negro Samuel Green who said young Negroes who start riots are not being contacted by community leaders.

Schools open in Huntsville in Madison County, Aug. 25.

"This is a problem that is beyond ministers and beyond prayers," he said.

"Sitting and meeting with a bunch of ministers is outdated today. The only way to prevent violence is to talk to the people capable of creating it—the everyday citizen," Green said.

Another private citizen, John B. Wiley, attacked the administration's contention that the conference was called to retain racial tranquility.

"You're holding the meeting to prevent what is already here. I'm on alert seven days a week. I watch," he said. "Even Saturday night there was a group of boys roaming the streets looking for revenge. Looking for a policeman to kill."

"It's gonna happen here," agitated, he said.

Wiley warned. "We've had racial incidents before. Two months ago a policeman tried to arrest a Negro and within five minutes 200 Negroes crowded around. It is the very kids who feel 'I'm tired, I'm sick and fed up with what is going on.'"

Councilman Albert J. Petrela, who is white, said he was "sick and tired of seeing the mans pitted against each other, categorization into Negro and white problems, forgetting the people who are the rioters."

"We sit here in the air conditioned offices discussing what should be done. But we're forgetting the unintelligent few on the street corners who are the agitators," he said.

Georgia KKK Endorses Barry For Presidency

ATLANTA — (UPI) — Georgia Ku Klux Klan leader Calvin Craig analyzed the coming Presidential campaign as a battle between "Americanism vs. Socialism," and said his group would support Republican nominee Barry Goldwater.

"I think the people will have an opportunity in November to vote on a right they should have had 10 years ago," he said. He explained the right was to decide "whether they accept States Rights and Constitutional Government or a continued path toward Socialism."

AN OPEN LETTER TO ALL CITIZENS OF MEMPHIS AND SHELBY COUNTY

I am a candidate for election as Judge of Division 8 of the Circuit Court of this County. I solicit your support and vote. I am a graduate of the University of Virginia Law School and have practiced law in Memphis for the last sixteen years. I have served as Assistant City Attorney since 1960.

I pledge to administer justice to all regardless of race, creed or national origin, and every person, before me, will receive fair and equal treatment.

As a practicing attorney, I have favored and supported the admission of all qualified lawyers to membership in our local Bar Association regardless of race, creed or national origin; and I still support such action as being just and fair.

Respectfully submitted,

Curry Roach Goes Out Front In General Sessions Court Clerk's Race

Clerk's Job Is Big Business Says Roach

The work in the office of Clerk of General Sessions Court is big, said Curry Roach, a candidate for that office, when he opened his campaign headquarters at Midtown Holiday Inn, 1262 Union Ave., Monday evening.

Roach, a former deputy assigned to General Sessions Court, said:

"My experience in government coupled with my familiarity with the activities of the clerk's office will equip me to render an honest, efficient and courteous service to all citizens of Shelby County," said Roach.

Continuing, Roach declared, "There are some reforms which need to be made in the General Sessions Court Clerk's office to provide increased efficiency and harmony of operation. I plan, if elected, to upgrade wherever possible all procedures followed in this office."

"I would also like to see a law passed which would require that pleadings be filed in duplicate in the General Sessions Courts as well as courts of record."

Concluding, Roach said, "If elected, it is my plan to form an advisory committee of 12 or more lawyers to meet with me periodically to recommend ways that we can improve the services of this office and make it work more harmoniously and efficiently."

Roach added, "The Clerk of General Sessions Courts assists the four judges of these courts in the administration of justice. There are more law suits filed in General Sessions Courts each year than all of the other Courts in Shelby County combined. Last year more than 34,000 civil cases and 10,000 criminal cases were filed in these courts and the number is increasing every year."

"The work of this office is big business—important to the citizens of this county. Last year a total of $217,841 was collected in clerk's fees alone. An additional $198,838 was paid in for sheriff's fees and commissions."

"The person who determines the policy of this office and who administers its work should be an individual who is capable of carrying this heavy responsibility and is a political independent not beholden to one isolated political subdivision of this county," said Roach.

Roach's qualifying petition contains an impressive list of VIP signatures, including City Commissioners Lane, Sisson and Moore, County Commissioners Jordan and Ramsay, former Mayor Orgill, Carl Carson, and two past presidents of the Citizens' Association, J. Thurston Roach and Dr. Henry Gotten, and former City Commissioner Bill Farris and Howard Van Eaton, past president of Frayser Council of Civic Clubs.

Curry Roach Steps Up His Campaign

Curry Roach, former deputy assigned to General Sessions Court, opened his campaign last week for clerk of General Sessions Court.

"My experience in government coupled with my familiarity with the activities of the clerk's office will equip me to render an honest, efficient and courteous service to all citizens of Shelby County," said Roach.

Continuing Mr. Roach declared, "There are some reforms which need to be made in the General Sessions Court Clerk's office to provide increased efficiency and harmony of operation. I plan, if elected, to upgrade wherever possible all procedures followed in this office."

Roach's qualifying petition contains an impressive list of VIP signatures, including City Commissioners Lane, Sisson and Moore, County Commissioners Jordan and Ramsay, former Mayor Orgill, Carl Carson, and two past presidents of the Citizens' Association, J. Thurston Roach and Dr. Henry Gotten, and former City Commissioner Bill Farris and Howard Van Eaton, past president of Frayser Council of civic clubs.

Curry Roach, candidate for clerk of General Sessions Court, in his opening campaign speech before about 300 at Mid-Town Holiday Inn, said, if elected, he plans to form an advisory committee of 12 or more lawyers who practice frequently in Sessions courts to meet with him periodically to recommend ways to improve services.

Roach Opens Clerk's Race

Curry B. Roach, Frayser civic leader of 3150 Scenic Highway, opened campaign headquarters this week in his bid for the office of General Sessions Court Clerk.

Pledging to run the office as a "political independent not beholden to one isolated political subdivision of this county," the candidate said his experience would enable him to render honest, efficient and courteous service to the people.

Mr. Roach, division superintendent in the Public Works Department, said if elected he would form an advisory committee of 12 to recommend improvements in the clerk's office.

Louis Ragghianti Named To Roach Finance Comm.

Curry Roach, candidate for Clerk of General Sessions Court, has named Louis Ragghianti as chairman of his finance committee.

Mr. Ragghianti, 45, is the owner of Frayser Drive-In-Grocery, married and the father of five children. He lives at 1809 Jay Cove. He is past state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and has been an active civic and community leader who has served as an officer of several organizations and clubs. He and his family attend "Our Lady of Sorrows," Catholic Church in Frayser.

Curry Roach Opens Campaign Headquarters

Curry Roach, former deputy assigned to General Sessions Court, opened his campaign last week for clerk of General Sessions Court to a crowd which overflowed the auditorium and the Mid-Town Holiday Inn on Union Avenue.

"My experience in government coupled with my familiarity with the activities of the clerk's office will equip me to render an honest, efficient and courteous service to all citizens of Shelby County," said Roach.

Continuing, Mr. Roach declared, "There are some reforms which need to be made in the General Sessions Court Clerk's office to provide increased efficiency and harmony of operation. I plan, if elected, to upgrade wherever possible all procedures followed in this office."

Mr. Roach added, "If elected, it is my plan to form an advisory committee of twelve or more lawyers to meet with me periodically to recommend ways that we can improve the services of this office and make it work more harmoniously and efficiently. The Clerk of General Sessions Courts assists the

"The work of this office is big business—important to the citizens of this county. Last year a total of $217,841.58 was collected in clerk's fees alone. An additional $198,838.90 was paid in for Sheriff's fees and commissions."

"It is clear, therefore, that the person who determines the policy of this office and who administers its work should be an individual who is capable of carrying this heavy responsibility and is a political independent not beholden to one isolated political subdivision of this county."

Roach's qualifying petition contains an impressive list of VIP signatures, including City Commissioners Lane, Sisson and Moore, County Commissioners Jordan and Ramsay, former Mayor Orgill, Carl Carson, and two past presidents of the Citizens' Association, J. Thurston Roach and Dr. Henry Gotten, and former City Commissioner Bill Farris.

Curry Roach Candidate for General Sessions Court Clerk....

Civic leader Curry B. Roach, 48, has announced his candidacy for the office of General Sessions Court Clerk, to be decided in the August 6 County General election. Roach, who is seeking the post as an independent candidate, has been employed as Division Superintendent in the Public Works Department the past four and a half years.

Before holding this position he was Deputy assigned to the General Sessions Courts four years, a business agent for the Firestone Workers Union Local and a recorder at the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company.

A former president of the Frayser Civic Club, he is also a member of the Citizens Association. He was a member of the Pete Sisson for Commissioner Campaign Committee and served on promotion committees for Bill Farris in his campaigns for the city commission and the governor's seat. He was also active in former State Senator Lewis Taliaferro's campaign.

"During the four years I worked as the Deputy assigned to the General Sessions Courts I gained a thorough knowledge of how the work of the General Sessions Clerk's office was administered and came to know personally the lawyers who practice in these courts," said Mr. Roach in his announcement.

"My experience in government coupled with my familiarity with the activities of the clerk's office will equip me to render an honest, efficient and courteous service to all citizens of Shelby County," said Roach.

Mr. and Mrs. Roach, the former Madeline Hewlett, live at 3150 Scenic Highway, and they are members of the Frayser Baptist Church.

Concluding his announcement, Roach said, "Having worked for independent candidates in the cause of good government, I realize the importance of being free of political control in order to serve impartially for the best interest of everyone."

Bears Camp Saddened Over Death Of Galimore, Team's 'Mr. Outside'

RENSSELAER, Ind. — Sorrow pervaded the training camp of the world football champion Chicago Bears, shocked by the deaths of fleet half-back Willie Galimore and end John Farrington in an auto crash as they hurried to beat a curfew after a golf outing.

Galimore, spindly-legged open-field runner, and Arrington, rangy pass receiver who never quite lived up to his promised potential, were killed when Galimore's little Volkswagen, ran out of control and overturned on a lonely country road.

Funeral arrangements for Galimore pending the arrival of Galimore's widow, Audrey, who hurried here by plane and automobile from their home in Tallahassee, Fla., a Bear spokesman said. "We are shocked and grieved."

For George Halas, 69-year-old "Papa Bear" who is head coach and close friend of the Bear players, it was "a shocking experience."

Notified of the accident late Sunday night, he went to Jasper County Hospital to identify the bodies and assumed the burden of notifying Mrs. Galimore and Mrs. Farrington by telephone of their husbands' deaths.

Some of the coaches and players heard the news shortly after the accident. Many others got the word when they gathered for breakfast.

gave lead, the Baltimore outfielder has suddenly turned out to be a hitting asset superior in percentage points during the last few weeks even to Tony Oliva and Mickey Mantle.

For Bowens, after hitting a lahassee, Fla. Farrington's pregnant bride of four months who received the news at home in Houston, Tex., arrived in Chicago Monday to prepare to have her husband's body shipped home for burial.

The sudden loss threw the Bear camp on the St. Joseph's College campus into grief and gloom.

2 Rookies And A Castoff Upsetting Pennant Races

By ARNOLD ROSENZWEIG

Two rookies and a castoff, in three surprise developments, are turning the Major Leagues upside down this year, and reshaping the pennant races.

And two of them appear to make the vital difference between first division rank for their clubs and the League pennant.

Take rookie Sam Bowens of the Orioles, for example.

With the Orioles in a wild scramble for American League lead, suddenly began 20 points.

And Bowens' powerhouse hitting is just what the Orioles need to take the League lead away from those pennant-hogging Yankees.

But Bowens, in true professional fashion, is not so impressed by his batting skill.

"I expected to have more RBIs and I ought to have a few more home runs," he said. "I'm having a little trouble with the pitchers. I know what they're trying to do to me. Once they get ahead on the count, they pitch me high and inside and I swing."

Yes, Bowens goes swinging sometimes a little wildly, but he's learning to lay off those high and inside pitches and hit the ones he wants.

Result: Bowens has advanced from a poor spring training to an attention-commanding hitting streak in a mid-summer up-surge which surprised everyone, including himself. Another rookie who's going to make or break his team with his midsummer hitting streak is Jim Ray Hart of the San Francisco Giants.

The Giants, like the Orioles (as of this writing) are on a half-game out of first place in their respective leagues. And Giants will stay out at the top, thanks to the sudden rash of hits of rookie third baseman Hart and the timely hitting of Willie Mays.

EMPLOYMENT INCREASES

AT SOUTHLAND GREYHOUND PARK

Mutual's are a vital part of the operation of Southland Greyhound Park. Efficient and courteous employee's are a must in this department. The above group represents the track's finest. From L to R are: M. Lane, C. Carruthers, Isaac Marmon, W. Bolton, Ernest Dorsey, Donald Horton, Howard Kayto, Sam Montgomery, Jack Eubanks, Bennie Williams and Sam Woods.

WEST MEMPHIS ENTERTAINMENT CENTER - AIDS ECONOMY WITH JOBS.

Southland Greyhound Park is more than just a race track. It is a business which offers gainful employment to hundreds of mid-southerners, adds valuable revenue to the economy through purchases of goods and utilization of local services.

As this page indicates, Southland Greyhound Park offers a variety of job opportunities and places its employee's in positions according to where the need occurs and their ability to fill these needs. The management of Southland is proud of its many capable employee's. They perform their assigned duties well and without fan-fare each night of racing.

Southland Racing Corporation, this year, is completing its 9th full season of operation under capable leadership of its president, Mr. Charles J. Upton, and general manager, Mr. Bernard Riley. The track is enjoying its biggest season. This year the Big Q was introduced to Mid-South racing fans. There have been $5,000 payoffs and this, of course has created a sensational response and added a new dimension to the races at Southland Greyhound Park. The track is located in West Memphis, Arkansas on Inter-state 55, only ten minutes from downtown Memphis. Post time is 8:00 P.M. nightly and there is a matinee on Saturday at 1:30 P.M. Make your plans to see such outstanding stars as "Friendly Fred", "Chief Qualla", "June Ann", "Rocket Out", "Red Branch", and "Mar Haraja". These and other exciting greyhounds provide thrills galore at Southland Greyhound Park.

Cleanliness is a must in the successful operation of any establishment. Southland is fortunate in having a thorough and efficient staff headed by, L to R: Alice Sanders, Mildred Hill and Ethel Coleman.

JACKIE SHOWS ZIP

The personable Jackie Robinson was spectacular in all his endeavors during his athletic years at UCLA as a basketball and football player. Most of us remember those history making campaigns with the Dodgers when the flatbushers were located in Brooklyn. From all indications the competitive, sometimes controversial figure, has lost none of the vim and vitality that made him one of the National League's most exciting participants.

Today, retired from the diamond a few years short of a decade, the successful Robinson is active in politics and has played a prominent role in the civil rights movement. Jackie recently resigned from his executive position with Chock-Full-Of-Nuts to enter the insurance business. The Robinson household in Connecticut enjoyed the fruits of a $50,000 salary. A person who strives on a busy schedule, Jackie also writes a syndicated column that is carried by this newspaper.

GOLDWATER'S NOMINATION RAPPED

ballot in the Cow Palace.

Goldwater's smashing nomination triumph which qualifies him to carry the party banner in the Presidential election in November was compared by San Franciscans with the way Wilt "The Stilt" Chamberlain dominated most of his opponents last winter on the hardwood in the same arena with the NBA Warriors.

Robinson, a worker for Pennsylvania Governor Bill Scranton's forces, was among the first to bitterly lash out against the Arizona Congressman. Interviewed on the convention floor Jackie stated it would be dangerous to elect a man like Goldwater to the White House after he had cast a dissenting vote on the Civil Rights Bill. How can you feel secure that Goldwater, if elected this fall, could honestly order the enforcement of the Civil Rights Bill when he has said it is in part unconstitutional?

The former Dodgers great, about two-thirds gray, appeared in the best of shape and as usual was excellent in his oratory.

STENGEL EXCHANGES 'DIGS'

Never a conservative at speaking his mind or getting things off his chest Jackie was the subject of some criticism early in the baseball season when he was quoted as remarking, "Casey Stengel, at 77 years of age, was too old to manage a Major League team." The statement didn't touch off an open clash with the New York Mets skipper, however, the loquacious veteran had a ready reply. Ole Casey, an eminent figure as prophet, was equal to the occasion. "Jackie is just full of a choc full of nuts," quipped Ole Casey.

FOUND BLOCK CLUB

The residents of 13th and Cotton Streets met in the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Mathis for the organization of a "Block Club." The idea had been in the making for some time, and it found the residents eager to participate.

Rev. Mathis acted as organizer, after having briefed the vice president; Mrs. Mary Dennis, secretary; Mrs. Audrey Wardlow, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mary Stigall, treasurer; Richard Cole, Henry Clark, Mrs. Bessie Taylor and Mrs. Mary Trigg, social committee, and Rev. Mathis, chaplain.

The club will be known as the 13th and Cotton Streets Block club.

PRIMARY PICNIC
The primary Sunday School class of Morning Star went on a picnic to Humboldt Lake. The children were thrilled. Mrs. Luria Lyons is the instructor.

Rev. Mathis, Mrs. Mathis and Mr. Robert Carr carried a group of young people to the State Congress, held in Memphis at St. John Baptist church and Owen College. The church also worshipped with Rev. C. F. Ferrell and his congregation at Luray.

Miss Effie Jean Simmons of Bells, Tenn., was married to Robert Mitchell at the Church of God in Christ at Bells. Humboltans attending were Mrs. Claud Jones and daughter, Claudette, Mrs. Ardella Coe and Beverly Landis.

Claim 4 Whites Killed In Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo — (UPI) — Communist-backed rebels in Maniema Province were reported to have killed four Belgians in Kindu. Europeans in other areas of the revolt-torn Eastern Congo expressed fears for their lives.

They were the first whites reported killed in the three-month rebellion in the Eastern Congo. The reports said that Kindu Rebel leader Louis Olanga appealed to about 70 whites still in the town to remain there and work. He said he would guarantee their safety.

Most of the whites in Kindu are Portuguese and Greek traders. White women and children were removed before the village was captured by the rebels several days ago.

Clay To Wed, Fight Sonny

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (UPI) — World Heavyweight Boxing Champion Cassius Clay said here Monday he'll probably get married at New York City two weeks from now. And he also said he expects a contract for a rematch between him and Sonny Liston will be signed within a few days.

Clay, returned here from a training session in Miami, would not reveal the name of the girl he plans to wed.

"Anything can go wrong," said the champion. "And if I suddenly decide not to marry her, it would be very embarrassing."

Clay said Liston's attorney and manager were here "for several hours" Monday negotiating a contract for a rematch. He said the contract might be signed as early as Wednesday.

"I am surprised I had never heard of her before. That girl, Virgie Till, is terrific and will be heard from. She has a wonderful voice, sensational stage presence and a pleasant personality. With some coaching she's got to make the top. What more can I tell you than that I myself want to invest in her until I heard she already had a contract with a manager."

Stabs Negro In Anger Over Harlem Rioting

BAL SHORE, N. Y. — (UPI) — An 18-year-old white youth who, police said, became angered during a discussion with friends about the recent violence in Harlem, jumped from his automobile and used a knife to slash the first Negro he encountered.

Police arrested the youth, Charles Patterson Jr., of Bay Shore. They reported he was driving with two teen-age friends when he became angered by their discussion of the riots.

Patterson, police said, jammed on his brakes and ran up to a hospital attendant, Judd Reese, cursed him and shouted: "Why don't you take the knife out of your pocket? We'll have it out right here."

Reese fled into a nearby doorway and was followed by Patterson who, police said, slashed him across the left ear to the mouth. Thirty stitches were required to close the wound. Patterson denied the attack.

NAACP Asks Race Peace For Iowa

DAVENPORT, Iowa — (UPI) — An official of the NAACP appealed for calm in the wake of two days of minor racial incidents.

Flynn Griffin of the NAACP's Davenport chapter called on Negroes to refrain from participating in any incident provoked by white youths coming into areas of the city inhabited by Negroes. He expressed alarm at tension building among Negroes, particularly among youth.

"Before taking action, call the police and let them handle the problem," Griffin said. "If the police do not handle the problem, we will ask for federal help. Before taking any action on racial matters, call the NAACP for help or legal advice. We do not want racial trouble in Davenport.

While extra squads of police patrolled the city's largest Negro section, near the downtown area and a few blocks up the Bluff from the Mississippi River, white youths in a car sped through, hurling a bottle at a house and throwing a brick through the windshield of an auto.

Friday afternoon four persons were arrested when a white youth and a Negro began fighting in a park after dismissal of summer classes at West High School and 50 other white and Negro youths joined the fray, armed with sticks, knives and lengths of pipe.

A Negro resident of the area became alarmed and fired a shotgun blast into the air. Police arrested four persons, two white youths and two Negroes. Three of the combatants, all aged 18, were charged with unlawful assembly and will appear in court.
